

LOCAL LAW
INTRODUCTORY 15-24
CHAUTAUQUA COUNTY

A LOCAL LAW AMENDING THE CHAUTAUQUA COUNTY CODE OF ETHICS

BE IT ENACTED, by the County Legislature of the County of Chautauqua, New York, as follows:

I. Local Law 11-23 of the County of Chautauqua, entitled "A Local Law Amending the Chautauqua County Code of Ethics, is hereby amended by substitution to state as follows:

Section 1.     Short Title

This code of ethics shall be known as the "Chautauqua County Code of Ethics."

Section 2.     Legislative Purpose

The purpose of this Code is to establish minimum standards of ethical conduct for County officers and employees to ensure that County government is free from improper influence. Ethical conduct ultimately depends on the personal integrity of County officers and employees and on the vigilance of their communities. The establishment of the standards and guidelines set forth in this code is a step toward providing the highest caliber of public administration for County government and increased confidence in its officials, while recognizing that public service cannot require a complete divesting of all proprietary interests nor impose overly burdensome disclosure requirements if County government is to attract and hold competent administrators.

By requiring public disclosure of interests that may influence or be perceived to influence the actions of County officials, this code is intended to facilitate consideration of potential problems before they arise, to minimize unwarranted suspicion, and to enhance the accountability of government to the people.

The disclosure requirements of this Code of Ethics are in addition to any other requirements imposed by law. Additional disclosure to the public is available pursuant to the New York State Freedom of Information Law and Election Law requirements. Copies of all contracts with the County are also available for public inspection at the Office of the Clerk of the County Legislature.

- a. within thirty (30) days of taking office; and
- b. no later than April 30 of each year thereafter.

A list of those titles which are subject to County disclosure requirements, as the same may be amended from time to time by the Ethics Board, is on file with the Clerk of the Legislature and in the office of the County Executive.

Before May 15th of each year, the County Executive shall verify that every affected County Officer or Employee has filed his or her annual disclosure statement. The request shall be supported by such documentation as may be reasonably requested by the Ethics Board. The prioritization of other County matters over the filing of the disclosure statement is not grounds for an extension of time to file.

4. If a County Officer or Employee who is elected or paid is not able, after reasonable efforts, to obtain some or all of the information required by paragraph two of this section which relates to his or her spouse or household member, he or she shall so state, as part of the annual disclosure statement.

5. The Ethics Board shall review all disclosure statements. All such statements are public records and shall be kept on file for at least seven (7) years.

6. If the Ethics Board finds a disclosure statement to be deficient, the Ethics Board will provide written notification of the deficiency(ies) to the filer along with a date or period of time by which the deficiency(ies) must be cured. If all deficiencies are not cured within the specified date or time period, and the otherwise applicable filing deadline has passed, the Disclosure Statement may be deemed to have been untimely filed.

- d. For existing employees and County Participants, by March 31st;

Notwithstanding the above, the Ethics Board may extend a due date due to approved leave-time (excluding vacation time), illness, injury, lack of County engagement, or other justifiable circumstances. The prioritization of other County matters over completion of ethics training is not grounds for an extension of time to file.

County employees shall cooperate with any request made by their supervisor that they complete, and confirm completion of, the annual training, earlier than March 31st.

Notwithstanding the fact that the Ethics Board's training is administered by the Department of Human Resources and Department Heads, County Officers and Employees bear ultimate responsibility for their timely compliance with this Law.

Such documentation shall reflect arrangements made by the Department Head for the employee to receive training at a designated date, time and location prior to the training confirmation due date.

c. For board members and others subject to the training requirement who are not County employees, the appointing authorities or their designees shall provide a copy of the training materials to each such individual upon such individual's appointment, and annually no later than March 1st, and shall secure written or electronic confirmation of receipt in the manner specified by the Office of the County Executive.

d. Appointing authorities or their designees shall certify to the County Ethics Board within five (5) business days of the annual confirmation due date that all non-employees under their purview and subject to the training requirement have acknowledged receipt of the annual training materials. If such an individual has not timely acknowledged receipt of the materials, the certification shall include a written explanation of efforts made to secure timely acknowledgment as well as a recommendation on retention or dismissal of such individual.

4. If a County Officer or Employee subject to the training requirement is unable to complete the training by the deadline due to approved leave-time (excluding vacation time), illness, injury, lack of County engagement, or other justifiable circumstances, such individual must submit for Ethics Board approval a written request for an extension of time to complete the training, approved by such Officer or Employee's department head, board liaison, the County Executive, or the Legislative Chair. The request shall be supported by such documentation as may be reasonably requested by the Ethics Board. The prioritization of other County matters over completion of ethics training is not grounds for an extension of time to file.

Section 11. Reporting Violations

All County Officers and Employees are encouraged to report any instances of suspected or known violations of this Code. Reports may be made to a supervisor, to the Chautauqua County Ethics Board c/o Office of the County Executive, 3 North Erie Street, Mayville, New York 14757, or to the Ethics Board at PO Box 109, Mayville, New York 14757.
